Indianapolis, IN – July 21, 2011 – The second week of the 2011 Circle City Equestrian Horse Show, which runs from July 14 to July 24, is up and running. As the first day of competition came to a close, exhibitors have been awarded numerous ribbons and prizes.

Tomorrow will be another exciting day of horse showing at the Indianapolis, Indiana Pepsi Coliseum and Fair Grounds. Besides the slew of championships set to be awarded tomorrow during the day, the $15,000 Welcome Stake will be the evening’s highlight. Many of the horse and rider combinations in tonight’s class will appear again on Saturday night for the $40,000 Circle City Equestrian Grand Prix.

Stay tuned tomorrow for results and championships from the Circle City Equestrian Horse Show, including the $15,000 Welcome Stake and Friday night’s spotlight on the hunter exhibitors during the $15,000 USHJA Hunter Derby.
